

The Hope of Followers at work

Leaders	Illusion of power	The leader is always the follower of someone else	The leader takes power from others illusion of submission or from resignation by failure	The leader loses when resignation is for rejuvenation, because they do not have that freshness
Followers	Illusion of submission	The submissive either enjoys it, deals with it or rejects it and can always become independent by choice	Resigning can be either an act of failure or an act of rejuvenation	If you can hold, do not resign when you feel it is a failure Hold to it until your personal path become clearer and by being neutral, kind and creative, this helps
Independent by choice not by failure	Feel neutral, be creative When the path is clearer and calmer, it will come	All starts in the mind, quiet it down, look at the big picture and ask yourself what is missing, be creative	Ideas for independence will come do not stress, be confident and trust the process Be patient, human timing goes slower than society	When the idea emerges, put your energy on this rejuvenation, this will increase your perspective motivate and transcend you
