

THREE PERSPECTIVES ON REALITY : SUPPORT, REACTION AND SPIRITUAL AWAKENING

SUPPORT FIGHT FOR

REACTIONNARY, CONSPIRACY FIGHT AGAINST

SPIRITUAL AWAKENING NEUTRAL - DETACH

Support encourages reality by following decisions taken even if consequences can be harmful for self and common good

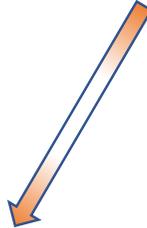

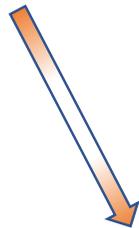

Conservatism or conspiracy will contradict change in the name of a glorified past and see in current decision makers a risk of abuse and malfeasance

Spiritually awakened finds there is a teaching in every situation and that fighting for or against is a waste of energy

Support accepts the idea that decision maker is more qualified than any following individual

Conservatism or conspiracy judges that current leader is not the correct one and returning to past is best practice

Spiritually awakened admits that power leads to abuse and they can learn from this by distancing from it, to retain their energies

Support, conservatism or conspiracy all use up their energies for the fight for or against power, diminishing the available energy for self and others

By being neutral to power, spiritually awakened will keep a large part of energy for their autonomy, their creativity and their altruism
